WEEK 1: LOVE OVER KNOWLEDGE

(Freedom shaped by love – 1 Corinthians 8:1–13)

DAY 1 – WHEN KNOWLEDGE ISN'T ENOUGH

READ: 1 Corinthians 8:1–3

BIG IDEA

Knowledge alone can lead to pride, but love builds others up.

DEVOTION

Paul immediately challenges the Corinthian definition of maturity. They prized being right, informed, and spiritually advanced. But knowledge without love creates distance, not discipleship. Love is what gives knowledge its proper shape. True maturity is not proven by what we know, but by how our knowledge leads us to love God and care for others.

PRAYER

Lord, shape my heart so that what I know always leads me to love.

FURTHER READING

1 Corinthians 13:1–3

James 3:13–18

Colossians 2:2–3

DAY 2 – ONE LORD, ONE CENTER

READ: 1 Corinthians 8:4–6

BIG IDEA

There is one God and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things exist.

DEVOTION

Paul grounds freedom in theology. Knowing who God is frees us from fear and false allegiances. But truth is not meant to inflate us. It is meant to anchor us. When Jesus is truly Lord, our lives reorder around Him. Knowledge deepens devotion, not superiority.

PRAYER

Jesus, center my life around You alone.

FURTHER READING

Deuteronomy 6:4–5

John 1:1–4

Philippians 2:9–11

DAY 3 – THE RESPONSIBILITY OF FREEDOM

READ: 1 Corinthians 8:7–9

BIG IDEA

Spiritual freedom must be handled with care and awareness of others.

DEVOTION

Not everyone matures at the same pace. Paul reminds the church that freedom without love can wound others. Christian maturity asks not only what is permissible, but what is beneficial. Love slows us down, helping us consider how our choices affect those still growing.

Spirit, help me use my freedom in ways that serve others.

FURTHER READING

Romans 14:13–19

Galatians 5:13–15

Philippians 2:3–4

DAY 4 – WHAT LOVE IS WILLING TO RISK

READ: 1 Corinthians 8:10–11

BIG IDEA

Misused freedom can harm the faith of others Christ died to save.

DEVOTION

Paul brings weight to the conversation. Christ died for the very people our actions might harm. Love refuses to treat others casually. The value of a brother or sister always outweighs our personal preferences.

PRAYER

Jesus, teach me to see others through the lens of Your sacrifice.

FURTHER READING

Matthew 18:6–7

Romans 15:1–3

DAY 5 – CHOOSING LOVE OVER RIGHTS

READ: 1 Corinthians 8:12–13

BIG IDEA

Loving others sometimes means laying down legitimate freedoms.

DEVOTION

Paul's conclusion is stunning. He would rather give something up forever than wound another believer. This is not weakness. It is Christlike strength. Love gladly limits itself for the good of others.

Lord, help me choose love over my rights.

FURTHER READING

Mark 10:42–45

WEEK 2: THE DISCIPLINE OF PURPOSEFUL LIVING

(Rights surrendered for the sake of the gospel – 1 Corinthians 9:1–27)

DAY 1 – RIGHTS YOU DON'T HAVE TO USE

READ: 1 Corinthians 9:1–7

BIG IDEA

Paul affirms his rights, even though he chooses not to use them.

DEVOTION

Paul is clear: he has real rights. However, maturity is shown not by insisting on them, but by holding them loosely. Purposeful living means submitting even good things to God's mission.

Lord, help me hold my rights with open hands.

READ: 1 Corinthians 9:15–18

The gospel is not a means of personal gain but a sacred calling.
